Article 7 of the ASE bylaws states,

" During the annual meeting, the ASE elects its Board. The election for the President takes place first, followed by the election of the Deputy President. Candidates for these positions shall have served as a member of the Board for a minimum of 2 years, and have been an elected member of the Board for at least one of those years. The election of the Secretary and the Treasurer and finally the Ambassadors then follows.

The Immediate Past President is an ex officio member of the Board.

Nominations must be sent to the Secretary not less than 28 days before the annual meeting. The Secretary shall publish the names of candidates to Board Members, leaders of National JCI Senate organisations and other candidates not less than 14 days before the annual meeting.

The President and IPP cannot stand for further election.

Members of the Board are eligible for further election or co-option, but with a limit of five consecutive elected years except for the positions of President & Deputy President.."
